

Nils Calixto

IT Technician
Abila, Kronos

Qualifications

- Strong system administration and database management skills.
- Proficiency in various programs, operating systems and applications.
- Expert at finding and resolving malfunctions, using exceptional technical and communication skills to ensure minimization of downtime and optimal computer performance.

Professional Experience

GASTech – Kronos Information Technology Technician 2004-Present

- Support business information systems by maintaining transaction schedules, monitoring logs, and balancing resources
- Plan and maintain system availability including planning for system outages and upgrades
- Revised designs for data warehouse schemas supporting new business processing resulting in improved query performance.
- In-depth understanding of security and backup procedures to ensure database integrity. Background in developing backup and disaster recovery plans for satellite offices.
- Superior communication, presentation, analytical and problem solving skill. Work well with all levels of business.
- Handled database server tuning, application tuning, maintaining documentation, capacity planning and database security

Education

Bachelor of Science, Computer and Information Technology Tethys University, 2004

MSCE – Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer
Oracle Database Administrator

Member – International Community for Database Management